

Editorial Rooms
of Scribner's Monthly, 743 Broadway,
New York.

Oct. 24th 1877

My dear Stedman

A thousand thanks for the book - I had not realized that you had accumulated so many treasures, during these few years. Some of these poems are among my "prime favorites" and they all bear the elegance of the pen of E.C.S.

- A lady friend of mine was staying with Emerson late - when he used to be with us

Smooth Intertwining Smoothly Overlaid

delight from F. Brown poem.

I read the Gedächtniss notes with great interest and especially was delighted with R.H.S.'s poem of the sleeping song - that immovable lyric.

I congratulate you -

Fatherly

R.W. Gedächtniss

.6.63

among many others -

- first received from you Sept 21/6